Next Weekend's Second Collection

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next week's collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human development needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty in the United States by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With the tradition of improving education, housing situations, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Your contribution will defend human dignity and reach out to those living on the margins. Please give to the CCHD collection.

“Get on the Bus” Support Needed

The Archdiocese of San Francisco Restorative Justice Ministry, an official sponsor and partner of Get on the Bus, invites you to support this organization. An annual event, Get on the Bus offers free transportation for children and their caregivers to visit mothers and fathers in the prison. Each child is provided a travel bag, a photo with his or her parent, and meals for the day (breakfast, snacks, lunch at the prison, and dinner). On the trip home, a teddy bear with a letter from his or her parent and post-event counseling are given. Get on the Bus is a program of The Center for Restorative Justice Works, a non-profit organization that unites children, families, and communities separated by crime and the criminal justice system. Donations are much appreciated to the website crjw.us or to St. Ignatius Parish, 650 Parker Ave., San Francisco 94118.

For more information please contact Ana Gonzalez-Lane at 415-731-4168 or ana@getonthebus.us.

Student Art and Writing Contest

In preparation for the Consecration of the archdiocese to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in October, children and youth in grades K-12 are invited to participate in an Art/Poetry/Essay contest on the theme of Mary. The contest is open to any student who is a member of a parish or attends a Catholic school or religious education program in the archdiocese. All grades may submit art and poetry; middle and high school students may opt for an essay. Suggested topics, deadlines, entry information, and rules can be found here. The firm deadline for entries is September 22, allowing time for this to be a school or summertime project. Awards will be given by Archbishop Cordileone at the Rosary Rally and Consecration on October 7.

For more information please contact Karen Guglielmoni at guglielmonik@sfarch.org or call 415-614-5578.

Helping Others to Get Ahead

While the main activity of the St. Patrick's St. Vincent dePaul Conference continues to be calling on people in need and helping them with rent, food, utilities, car repairs, and dental bills, volunteers have also taken on a very exciting project. They are meeting an additional day each month to create both an internet site and accompanying paper reference designed to help people save money. Working on "It's Fun to Be Frugal," volunteers research various free and low-cost resources, which could help clients (and all of us) to build up savings. This will be an ongoing project updated frequently, but its initial debut will probably be in the fall.

Catholic San Francisco Newspaper Website

Catholic San Francisco Newspaper has a new website catholic-sf.org. Catholic San Francisco, the official newspaper of the Archdiocese, has rolled out a new and improved website. Catholic San Francisco is published 26 times a year; and the Spanish-language San Francisco Católico is published 20 times a year. The newspapers' redesigned and upgraded website, with news, opinion, events calendars, and social media, makes it easier to keep up with developments in the Church and the world, and with activities throughout the archdiocese.

Immaculate Heart Radio is a lay apostolate dedicated to spreading the knowledge, love and practice of the Roman Catholic Faith by means of radio. Our programming content is, therefore, primarily catechetical, devotional, and inspirational.

Divorce Support Group Monthly:

First & Third Wednesdays, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

St. Stephen Church, O'Reilly Parish Center,
451 Eucalyptus Dr., San Francisco

Are you dealing with or challenged by the end of a marriage? Our archdiocese has a special group for all who have endured the pain of separation and divorce. We recognize that through their vulnerability and patient endurance, they bear witness to Christ and His redeeming grace. "May the church be the place of God's mercy and love, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven, and encouraged to live according to the Gospel." - Pope Francis. "The Church is definitely against divorce, and divorced people are strongly against it as well, but the Church isn't against divorced people." - Father Al Grosskopf, S.J. The Catholic Divorce Ministry can answer questions and offer help. The support group meets on the first and third Wednesday each month, 7:30 p.m. at the Parish Center, St. Stephen Church.

For more information, please contact
Fr. Al Grosskopf, S.J. at 415-422-98 or
